CHILDREN TOLD HOW TO MAKE THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

Interesting Address by J. H McFarland Yesterday Afternoon--Civic Parade Interesting Spectacle—Many Visitors.

Before an audience that almost taxed the capacity of the Grand yesterday afternoon the Civic Department of the Woman's Club held exercises in observance of National Civic day. The principal speaker was Dr. J. Horace McFarland, of Pittsburg, president of the American Civic Association. The exercises lasted about an hour and were preceded by an elaborate parade along South Elm street. Taken all in all National Civic day was fittingly observed in Greensboro and there is no doubt but that there is greater civic pride in the hearts of hundreds of Greensboro people today than there was yesterday morning.

Mrs. A. B. Kimball, chairman of the Civic Department of the Woman's Club, presided over the meeting, Rev. Melton Clark offering prayer. In her opening remarks Mrs. Kimball said that the presence of so many people showed that they were interested in the movement for cleaner streets, sidewalks, front and back yards, etc. She reviewed some of the work of the department and asked for the hearty co-operation of the people of the city.

Mrs. Al Fairbrother, who was to have read a paper on the work of the Junior Civic League, was suffering with a deep cold and the paper prepared by Mrs. Fairbrother was read by Mrs. Dorian Blair. Following are extracts from the paper:

"All great movements are the outgrowth of small beginnings, and while we have done no great things as yet, we feel that we have put the ball in motion; we have thrown the pebble into the ocean and caused a ripple upon the current of progress which will expand and gather strength until it reaches every part, not only of this commonwealth but of the entire Southland.

"Greensboro has taken the initiative—and referendum? in the observance of National Civic day, and we want to see it made a public holiday—the same as Memorial day and Labor day, and others of like character.

"The work of the Civic Department is educational, with practical demonstrations, and realizing the difficulty of reforming men and women, we start at the beginning—start with the child, whom, according to the Biblical injunction, we attempt to train in the way he should go, so that when he is old he will not depart from it. It is the bending of the twig—the planting of a seed, which in time, we expect to yield a golden harvest.

"Occasions like these are needed to break the clods and prepare the soil for the tender roots, which require all the room and all the encouragement possible.

"The Junior Civic League of Greensboro, while a very new and very imperfectly organized society, has already done much to beautify and improve our city. It has not only caused two blades of grass to grow where one grew before, but through its efforts many bare and barren back yards, which were unsanitary and unsightly, have been transformed into beautiful flower gardens, gorgeous with fragrant blossoms. It is the neucleus of greater things—the acorn from which we expect to see the tall oak, in a brave and earnest body of intelligent civic workers, who will look back with pleasure to this day when those of us who compose the present civic department have returned to dust."

The song, "Hurrah For Greensboro," was sung with much gusto by the members of the Junior Civic League, following which the seventh grade from the Normal Training school gave a broom drill that evoked rounds of applause and almost created a demonstration at the close. Each of the girls wore the cap and apron of a housemaid, while a

COUNCIL MEETING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON WAS UNINTERESTING

The regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the council hall. The session lasted for less than two hours, but little business of interest being transacted.

Hudson & Swift appeared in behalf of the slaughter houses and asked that the portion of the inspection ordinance making the slaughter houses pay a license tax of $50 be repealed. They pointed out that this worked a hardship on those who ran slaughter houses as they would have to do a big business to come out even with the license tax so high. Action was deferred until the next meeting.

The committee appointed some time ago to consider the proposition submitted by R. W. Harrison regarding the purchase of a strip of land adjoining Church street was continued, the matter being left open.

The committee appointed to investigate the cost of putting in the subway at Martin street, reported that the work of putting in the subway, together with the expense of grading and macadamizing the street and carrying off the water would cost something like $4,000. The matter was deferred until the next meeting.

Several tax rebates were allowed, it being found that errors had been made ing listing property. Three applicants for license to run automobiles were passed and the clerk instructed to issue the license.

The committee appointed to investigate the request of D. W. Corl to locate his fence on the eight foot line on North Davie street reported that with the exception of two places the deeds called for eleven feet of sidewalk. The matter was discussed at length and the committee report adopted, this recommending that the request of Mr. Corl be not granted.

DAVE STEVENSON ASSAULTS OFFICER

Dave Stevenson, well known in police circles, last night assaulted Police Officer Iseley and is now in the calaboose to await a hearing this morning on the charges of assault and resisting arrest. The policeman was cut in the face with a drinking glass and several pieces of plaster were required to bind the wounds together. He was able to continue on his beat after getting his face patched up.

Stevenson was on Lewis street in a drunken condition and was cursing loudly. He was approached and told that he would have to quiet down or be taken up. He replied by cursing louder and without warning struck the officer in the face with a glass he was holding in his hand. He sprang backward and drew a second glass from a pocket and hurled this at the officer head, sending his helmet flying through the air. The officer sprang upon his man and handcuffed him.

The rickety patrol was summoned and Sergeant Pearce and Officer McCuiston went down. They placed the drunken man in the wagon and started uptown. Near the depot the wagon collided with a street carriage and the man was transferred to an auto and carried up the street at a speed never attained on the streets of Greensboro before.

Pedestrians could not see the inmates, so fast was the auto going, and they concluded that the machine was running away with no one at the helm. Several gave pursuit, but arrived at the station in time to see the calaboose doors closing on Stevenson and Officer Iseley bringing up the rear with the remainder of the patrol wagon.

Stevenson is regarded as a dangerous character. He attempted to shoot Sergeant Jones a couple of years ago while the latter was placing him under arrest.

MAN WITH LARGE FAMILY DIDN'T GET BAGGAGE CHECKED

D. M. Isenhour, who has been employed at the White Oak Mills, was in an unfortunate condition last night. Isenhour had secured employment at Winston-Salem and was preparing to take his family over last night on the late train. However, the baggage master refused to check his trunks on account of their bad condition, even after the owner had told him to check them "bad condition." Isenhour's family consists of three grown women, two young girls, half a dozen, more or less, of little tots between the ages of three and twelve and three or four boys in their teens. They could not get the trunks forwarded and had to remain in the city over night. The conductor on the train tried to get the baggage master to label the trunks "bad" and let him carry them but he refused.

There were many around the station who declared that the baggagemaster should be made to pay for such treatment, especially after the man had agreed to release the railway company from liability if there should be any damage. Isenhour declared his intention of consulting an attorney early this morning, a number having urged him to take this course.

MOREHEAD TOWNSHIP SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETS

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Christian church, corner Walker avenue and Eugene street, the Morehead Township Sunday School Association will hold its annual meeting. An interesting program has been prepared and it is hoped that each of the twenty-one schools in the township will have a full representation present. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected and several talks made.

Pres. Moffitt Meets Success

Elon College, N. C., March 11.—Prof. B. B. Doughtery, president of the Appalachain Training School, Boone, N. C., which is doing such excellent work among the so-called mountain white of North Carolina, paid the college a visit on last Sunday and Monday, on his way home from the Capital City, where he had been importuning the Legislature for funds for his institution. Prof. Doughtery felt bound to Elon by tender ties as he expressed it, and so was anxious to pay this visit. He has used several of former Elon pupils in his faculty and administrative corps. On Monday morning Prof. Doughtery attended chapel services, and made a very interesting and timely address to the students.

President Moffitt returned to the college on last Tuesday morning, from an extended tour of Eastern Virginia, in behalf of the special fund for the college, which he is endeavoring to raise, and with which he is meeting with great encouragement. He averaged about $300 a day on this trip and there are more prospects in this same section which will run the amount considerably above that amount.

Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Child, of Fairfield, Conn., are now honored visitors of the college. Dr. Child on Thursday evening delivered the first of a series of lectures on Egypt, which is the theme of his lectures this year. His subject was the Approach to Egypt or From Gibraltar to Alexandria. The steamer on which Dr. Child visited this ancient land made stops at various points of interest in the Northern Mediterranean, and these stops were most classically described by him, particularly the impregnable rock, Puteoli, Vesuvius, and Cypress. After each of these places were visited in the lecture, matters of historical import were interwoven with matters purely descriptive, in a most fascinating fashion. Dr. Child will also preach to the student body on next Sunday morning and evening.

Girl Ran Away From Danville

Yesterday morning the police arrested Ethel Scott, a young white girl who ran away from her parents in Danville, Va., on last Tuesday. She was carried back yesterday afternoon by Policeman McCuiston. The girl came here Tuesday and yesterday secured work but she did not like it and soon quit, being taken up while loafing at the passenger station. The girl declared that she left home because her mother treated her so badly.

J. Ed. Albright For Commissioner

J. Ed Albright announces this morning as a candidate for Commissioner of Public Works. He has been a resident of Greensboro for sixteen years and is one of this city's most enthusiastic boosters. He has been engaged in business here and is now serving as a member of the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Albright says that his experience in waterworks construction and in the plumbing business especially qualifies him for this commissionership, but that he did not desire to offer for the position. However, numerous friends pressed the matter upon him until his consent was secured.

Rev. Mr. Shaw Will Preach to Children

At Westminster Presbyterian church this afternoon at 3 o'clock Dr. A. R. Shaw, who is assisting the pastor in the revival meetings, will preach a special sermon to the children. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock Dr. Shaw will preach on "The Providence of God."

The congregation last night was the largest during the meetings. The interest is more pronounced at each service. So far there have been a dozen professions of conversion as a result of the able sermons of the preacher.

The meetings will continue through Sunday. The public invited.

Plan Progressing to Make Air Fertilizers

Chester, S. C., March 10.—Work on the new plant that is to manufacture fertilizer from the air, at Great Falls, on the Catawba river, in the lower end of the county, is progressing rapidly and will soon be completed. At the same time the company is erecting a number of houses there and in a short while there will have been born another thriving village down there in a region that a few years ago was a veritable wilderness of rugged, ragged hills covered with scrub oak and pine.

This plant will be the only one of its kind in America to make fertilizer from the air and is owned by the same people who own the Southern Power plants and associated developments. Its success is based on the fact that the method has been used in Germany with good results and there is no doubt but that it means a still greater development of Chester county.

Funeral of J. T. Johnson Yesterday

The funeral of John T. Johnson, whose sad death was mentioned in yesterday's Telegram, was held from the late residence, Yaquina street, yesterday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. F. Staley and Elder O. J. Denny. The service was simple but impressive, the ministers speaking touchingly of the faith of the deceased and his readiness to depart for an unseen shore. The remains were taken to the station and put on the 3:20 train for Burlington for interment at Mount Olive church near that place. The following were the pall bearers: J. H. Combs, George Glass, J. C. Andrews, H. M. Howard, R. L. Steele, J. T. Edwards.

MARVELOUS ENGINE AT RALEIGH A. & M. COLLEGE

Invented by North Carolinian—How Berries And Truck Bring Money—Poe Back From World Tour.

Raleigh, March 10.—The last formal social function in connection with the 1911 general assembly was a banquet last night in Giersch cafe participated in by the clerks of the Senate and House who served with wonderful efficiency through the most strenuous periods of the legislative rush. There was a sumptuous spread and there was a good fellowship and expression of highest satisfaction at the outcome of the legislative session. Among those present at the festive board assembled at the ... were Principal Clerks Otis Wolf, of the Senate and T. G. Cobb, of the House, Senate Assistants R. B. Boyd, Steadman Thompson; and Chas. R. Wade and House Assistants Alex Lassiter, Chas. T. Bell, W. H. N. Smith, Thomas Moore, W. N. Page, T. R. Barrows, R. L. Huffman.

Strawberry Prospects.

It is learned that the prospects are for fifteen or eighteen hundred carloads of strawberries to be shipped from the Eastern Carolina trucking belt during the approaching season which is expected to open about April 15. The Carolina berry growers realize something like a million and a half dollars each season from their shipments which are chiefly from Duplin, Sampson, Wayne, Bladen, Columbus, Robeson, Cumberland and Brunswick counties. Furthermore the Eastern Carolina truckers along the coastal and east central sections realize something like five hundred and seventy five thousand dollars from their green vegetables and other truck.

Charters Issued.

Charters are issued for the Money-Hanner Co., Winston-Salem, capital $50,000 authorized and $2,000 subscribed by R. H. Money, O. W. Hanner and others for real estate, insurance and brokerage.

Another charter is for the Fogleman & Turner Co., Oxford, capital $25,000 by W. H. Fogleman and others for general contract construction.

Inspector Ordered To Texas.

Adjutant General Leinster of the North Carolina National Guard, is notified by the United States War Department that Lieutenant Wells, of the United States Army, who has just completed the inspection of the companies of the North Carolina Guard in the territory east of Raleigh, is ordered to Texas for the mobilization on the Mexican frontier and that Capt. Corput is ordered to complete the inspections in this State. Capt. Wells inspected the Burlington company tonight and Capt. Corput will fill the other appointments which close March 27 at Waynesville. The remaining dates in their order are: Lexington, March 10; Reidsville, March 11; Thomasville, March 13; Winston-Salem, March 14; Mt. Airy, March 15; High Point, 16; Concord, 17; Wadesboro, 18; Shelby, 20; Gastonia, 21; ...ville, 22; Hickory ..., 23; States-... 25; W... ..., 26; Asheville, 24 and ...aynesville, 27.

Marvelous Engine.

Out at the power house of the A. & M. College there is a marvelous little engine being demonstrated for the first time, the invention of a well known North Carolinian, Lafayette Holt, of Burlington. It is compact and powerful to a degree. It has only five moving parts and is scarcely one-fifth of the size of the average engine of corresponding power. It is known as the Holt Rotary engine. There is one lubricator for the entire machine, no dead centers, it is dust proof and runs with one pound of steam above normal atmosphere. It is capable of compound or direct drive and is pronounced at the college especially adapted for rural work, including saw mills, road rollers, traction engines and general barnyard utility. It gives good service setting at any angle and seems to operate with far less steam consumption than engines generally put to this service. James R. Hoffman, who is making the demonstration in co-operation with the college students, is sharing with the inventor congratulations on the success of the demonstration.

Poe Back From World Tour.

Mr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, is just back from his tour of the world during which he traveled more than forty thousand miles by steamer, railroad, rickshaw, donkey, elephant, sedan chair and other means of transportation. It is a notable fact that during his trip he saw only one human face he had ever seen before. This was Miss Sarah Cheshire, daughter of Bishop Cheshire, of the diocese of North Carolina, whom he saw in Wuchang, China, where she is in the missionary service. Mr. Poe declares that his trip has brought him to realize more than ever the tremendous privilege of being an American. A sad feature of his home-coming is the death of his mother who passed away this week at the old Poe home in Chatham county. She was 65 years old, daughter of the late A .H. Dismukes, a Cthaham planter and was a near kinswoman of the wife of Gen. W. A. Pender.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS LOST TO ELON BASEBALL TEAM

Elon College, N. C., March 10.—The Elon College team defeated the Greensboro High School club today in a featureless but interesting game on the local grounds. The weather was a little cold but both Warren and Coffin showed up in good form and played a classy game. This was the first game the locals have played and all things being considered they showed up very well.

Features of game were pitching of Coffin and right fielding of Lewis for the visitors. For the locals Warren pitched a superb game, while the batting of Brockwell and the home run of McCauley caused much excitement.

Totals: Runs, Elon 9; Greensboro High School, 0. Struck out, by Warren 4; struck out, by Coffin 2.

Application Filed for Stripling's Pardon.

Atlanta, Ga., March 10.—Formal application for a pardon for Edgar Stripling, recently arrested as an escaped murderer at Danville, Va., where he was serving as police chief under the name of Morris, was filed with the prison commission today by Attorney T. T. Miller of Columbus, Ga. The application will be argued within the next thirty days. Sentiment is general throughout the State for the release of Stripling, who was captured at Danville, fourteen years after he had escaped from the county jail at Columbus.

Bond Election For Good Roads in Anson County

Wadesboro, March 10.—Anson county will have an opportunity of making a progressive step on May 2 when an election will be held on the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of improving the public roads of the county as provided in an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina.

The bill passed by the Legislature provides for the issuance of $300,000 in bonds. The proceeds of which are to be used for the improvement of the roads of the county. The board of county commissioners has called an election to be held on May 2 and also ordered a new registration of the voters of the county for this election. The registration books will be opened April 1 and closed April 29.

GAMBLER TO ROADS.

In Municipal Court yesterday morning George Rudd, the negro who was fined $20 and costs for gambling on Thursday, was unable to pay his fine and Judge Eure dispatched him to the roads for a term of sixty days.

Few resign and of the few, some do not stay resigned.

Has the Postmaster General considered the fact that his magazines will cost more if postal rates are increased?

The Legislators having gone home, life in Raleigh will proceed along the usual summer-vacation-days lines.

Times have changed and most folks have changed with them. In the springtime in these latter days the young man's fancy raptly turns to thoughts of baseball.

Perhaps if President Diaz did not have so many things demanding attention all at once, he would reciprocate by rushing a big army up to the Texas border.

"Charlotte's main asset is her climate," says the Observer. We have been laboring under a delusion. Thought Charlotte's main asset was several square miles of tillable land situated inside the city limits.

Only eleven babies were born on Fifth Avenue, New York City, in the year 1910. Fifth Avenue may continue to flourish nnancially, but it can never hope to win the admiration of T. Roosevelt.

Atlanta has been supremely happy this week. Atlanta is never so happy as when entertaining distinguished men, and men of that calibre have been in Atlanta in droves during the meetings of the Southern Commercial Congress.

President Diaz will probably be grateful to the United States for stopping the revolution, if the matter ends there. Diaz may fear, however, that the present move is similar to that which ended in this government taking charge of the West Indies and the Philippines.

Norfolk wants to get water from North Carolina. When a city with as much Virginia water as Norfolk has, decides to try North Carolina water it is proof that the water in this State is of extraordinary quality.

The army movement against the Mexican border, incidentally, is good business for the telegraph companies and a heavy expense to the newspapers. The latter will pay telegraph tolls for a big batch of mighty poor space filler.

Senator Lorimer of Lllinois and Governor Blease of South Carolina are the most "cussed" officials in the country at present. There is in some quarters the manifestation of intention to drop Lorimer, but South Carolina newspapers have shown no disposition to give Blease a rest.

Winston-Salem has an eight story office building, and is correspondingly elated and elevated. Greensboro's tall buildings are not as high as Winston-Salem's skyscraper, but the next one erected here will cause the public to take notice. The Telegram predicts that it will be a modern steel frame building twelve or fifteen stories in height.

Wilmington Dispatch asks for commission government for North Carolina. The people of the State evidently have great confidence in Greensboro's good judgment, as most of them seem to be willing to go where this city leads; but nobody ever suspected that Greensboro's confidence in commission government would lead to a movement to have it applied to the State.

NEWSPAPER OPINION.

Taft Will Enjoy Himself.

So far as an extra session is concerned, there are several excellent golf links right here in Washington—Washington Post.

Kaiser and a Few Others.

The Kaiser appears conspicuously again in the census returns showing that there are 64,896,881 people in Germany.—Boston Globe.

Hard to Account for Them.

Some are born to greatness, some achieve greatness—and then there are Dr. Cook and Representative Bennet.—New York World.

Is Blease Worth $5,000?

The salary of the Governor of North Carolina has been raised to $5,000—but it can not be expected that any South Carolinian will accept such a job as the ruling of the North Carolinians for that sum.—Columbia State.

Want to Reward Instead of Punish This Man.

Ninety days in jail and $100 fine is rather skimp punishment for a man who emulated that noble patriot, Morganfield, by sending a wild engine along the tracks near Danville. It might have suggested itself to the court to give the prisoner a pair of bracelets and seat him in the cab of a runaway iron horse to get some first-hand information as to what happens in such cases. But for the fact that we do not approve of harsh sentences, we would suggest that he be sent back to North Carolina.—Richmond Virginian.

The Durham Sun says that active steps are now being taken toward locating the headquarters of the North Carolina Children's Home Society in Durham. The headquarters at the present time is located at Greensboro, and it is very probable that the headquarters of the society will be removed from that place to Durham during the next few weeks. A plot of ground has been donated and a building for the children is now in course of erection. The Sun says this society "has been of incalculable service throughout the entire State. The society takes in orphan and destitute children who for various reasons are not eligible to admittance to orphan asylumns and similar institutions, and finds homes for the children where they will be well cared for. Hundreds of children have been taken up by the society who if left alone would perhaps have drifted into a life of crime and degradation." It is one society of which not much has been heard in the papers. General Julian S. Carr is its president.

THE MEXICAN DEMONSTRATION.

The demonstration along the Mexican border differs in impressiveness, but not in essential character, from the displays of force that the United States has had to make in more than one Latin-American republic of late years to maintain the credit of the Monroe Doctrine. If, by that famous declaration, we forbid the nations of Europe to protect the lives and property of their subjects from the raids of black-and-tan patriots, then it obviously follows that we must do that police work ourselves. To refuse to do so would be to bring about situations which first-class powers, if they would retain their self-respect, could not possibly tolerate.

It was partly to prevent an invasion of the Monroe Doctrine, by some outraged and long-suffering foreign nation, that we drove the Spaniards out of Cuba and set up a civilized government there and guaranteed its decency and stability. It was to make shipping safe in the Panama Canal that we created the artificial and dependent Republic of Panama and so removed temptation from the presence of the barabarous and thieving officials of Columbia. And it was to head off the threatened reprisals of France, Germany and England that we flourished the big stick over Venezuela and took charge of the bizarre finances of Santo Domingo and undertook to refund the debts of Honduras.

In the case of Mexico a double motive urges a show of impatience. In the first place, more than $750,000,000 of American money is invested in the country, and the demand has begun to go up, not only from the Guggenheims and Wall Street, but also from a multitude of small investors, that American-owned mines, railroads, factories and irrigation works be protected against the enterprises of the so-called revolutionists. And in the second place, the same demand comes from across the seas, where millions of dollars' worth of securities, represented by Mexican properties but chiefly floated by Americans, are held.

So far not much actual damage has been done. But if the present reign of brigandage is permitted to go unchecked, heavy losses will inevitably fall upon foreign investors, and we must either permit foreign intervention or see to the business ourselves.—Philadelphia Record.

A man may be working for all he is worth and not be worth much at that.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

"Give us more business and less politics in Greensboro and in North Carolina," is the plea of The Greensboro Telegram. To which we add a hearty amen.—Winston-Salem Journal.

The Guilford authorities are thinking of consigning Moses Speaks to the insane department of the State penitentiary, which is much better than turning him loose.—Durham Herald.

The trouble with some towns is lack of individual initiative. In some instances that is worse than being short on capital. With plenty of capital and nothing doing in manufacturing, the best thing a town can do is to lay in a stock of initiative.—Wilmington Star.

The Guilford commissioners are showing commendable wisdom in the matter of Speaks, the High Point murderer. They plan sending him into confinement without a criminal trial which would cost between $1,500 and $2,000 and which would almost inevitably result in exactly similar disposition of the man.—Charlotte Observer.

Some school teacher down the way has been lecturing his classes about how to spell and write the language. As examples of how it should not be done he was so unwise as to hold up for example copies of the Yadkin Ripple, the Elkin Times and the Davie Record. Shame on him. The newspaper men are now coming back and he had just as well move on. "Oh that mine enemy would write a newspaper article." Get him to write a little and then his doom will be sealed beyond question. It would be something to see one of the infuriated editors shake up any kind of an article that professor could write.—Mt. Airy News.

It's enough to make a Stokes county mule Hee-Haw to hear the Winston Journal prating about Senator Simmons "voting his convictions" in the Lorimer case. As we see it, he simply voted his orders—and the folks he took his orders from care no more about whether Lorimer's seat was bought or not than they care about a last year's bird nest. They were merely after keeping a man in the Senate whom they could always depend on to vote with the interests. That is the gist of the whole matter. As for Senator Simmons' "convictions," even his henchmen wont seriously argue that he has any when the interests of the great common people and those of the money powers clash. The Journal should not use the good old word "convictions" in such a sorry way!—Madison Herald.

GOVERNMENT BY COMMISSION.

On the tenth of April the voters of Winston will have a chance to decide whether or not they desire to change the present form of municipal government to that of government by commission. From now until the day of the election it is the purpose of The Journal to discuss various phases of commission government—first the principles applicable to all cities under this form of government and then the peculiar features of the government as contained in the proposed charter of Winston. It is confidently believed by those who have made a comparative study of the charter of Winston and of other commission cities that ours eliminates most of the objectionable features that have subjected the others to criticism.—Winston-Salem Journal.

MR. SIMMONS' VOTE.

The Fayetteville Index gives to Senator Simmons a vote of confidence in regard to his vote in favor of Senator Lorimer's retaining his seat. The Index, after reviewing briefly the case and after referring to the positions taken by the News and Observer, The Charlotte News and The Journal, says: "While it may be unfortunate that Lorimer is to retain his seat in the senate because of the influences that were exercised to secure it, The Index is loath to condemn Mr. Simmons for his action which seems to have been based on the facts in the case. We believe he voted his convictions and we are inclined to admire the courage and fearlessness which he displayed in view of the storm of criticism from influential Democratic sources in North Carolina, which he must have expected with its consequent unfavorable effect upon his future political possibilities."

It may be that a majority of the people in North Carolina believe that yet we cannot think that they will condemn Senator Simmons for voting his convictions.—Winston Salem Journal.

SPRING RIDING HABIT.

What the Up to Date Equestrienne Will Wear.

READY FOR THE HORSEBACK RIDE.

Women are taking more and more to horseback riding as a means of keeping themselves in form, but of course there are many who ride merely for the love of the exercise. Whatever the object of the sport, every woman who rides wants to be turned out in the latest and most approved riding togs. A dowdy looking woman on horseback is an unforgivable object. She won't be a dowd, however, if she goes to a good tailor and follows the idea of the riding costume seen in the illustration. The skirt is a divided affair made of English suiting, and the details are correct in every particular.

Memorial to Famous Women.

The lady chapel of the new Liverpool cathedral, which is to be opened next summer, has a scheme of beautiful stained glass windows commemorative of the noble deeds of good women. Besides the famous women of the Bible the following are commemorated: Dr. Alica Marvel and all who have laid down their lives for their sisters. Grace Darling and all courageous maidens, Josephine Butlet and all brave champions of purity, Mary Collet and all prayerful women, Louise Stewart and all the noble army of martyrs, Christine Rossetti and all sweet singers, Catherine Gladstone and all loyal hearted wives, Elizabeth Barrett Browning and all women who have seen the infinite in things, Angela Burdette-Coutts and all women almoners of the King of heaven, Mother Cecile and all women loving and large hearted in counsel.

How to Use Sawdust.

Sawdust may be made to serve a number of purposes for the housewife. It is good for removing sediment in glass and earthen ware. A handful thrown on a dying fire will help to revive it. Well dried and heated and sprinkled over grease spots in carpets, it is useful in removing these objectionable marks. It should be well rubbed in, left for a few hours, then treated again if necessary. Heat some sawdust on a piece of paper in the oven, and it is an excellent remedy for mildew and damp spots on metal or other polished goods. Rub some dry sawdust on articles that have been polished and the polish will last longer. Slightly moistened sawdust sprinkled on outhouse floors, verandas or larder, etc., and brushed off with a hard broom will clean the floor without much trouble.

The articles seen in the cut are carried out in English morocco in a charming shade of dull green and with the telephone case made a delightful addition to one's desk fitments.

In Doubt.

An exceedingly pompous and supercilious old chap engaged rooms at a hotel, where he made himself pretty obnoxious by his petty faultfinding among the employees. One day he haughtily approached the clerk's desk and announced that he wanted to lodge a complaint.

"A complaint," said the clerk. "Well, I guess you'll have to see the boss about that. That's him there."

The pompous one turned to the boss, who stood at his elbow smoking a cigar.

"Are you the proprietor of this hotel?" he began.

The proprietor took his cigar from his mouth, looked the old chap up and down and drawled:

"Well, I thought I was till you came."

Made His Heart Glad.

When Dolly Madison was mistress of the White House, Meley Meley, the first Turkish minister to this country, arrived in Washington, and a grand ball was given in his honor, to which the beauty and fashion of the town flocked, curious to see his elaborate dress and turban. Meley Meley, however, showed perfect indifference to the open admiration about him until, spying a large, fat negress on her way from the kitchen, he rushed to her and, with much enthusiasm, threw his arms around her, saying she reminded him of home and his best and most expensive wife—"a load for a camel."

You can't always tell how glad a man is to see you by the way he shakes hands.

HOW CHRONIC COUCHS

Are Being Cured by Vinol—An Account of One Case.

New Haven, Conn.—"I was troubled with a most persistent chronic cough for a long time and had tried so many remedies and prescriptions without benefit that I was discouraged. I was persuaded by my friends to try Vinol. I must say that I had little confidence, but I made up my mind to give it a fair trial. Before I finished my first bottle of Vinol I commenced to notice an improvement in my general condition. After taking the second bottle, my cough left me, and I must say I never felt better in my life,—all due to the use of Vinol. I can also recommend Vinol to anyone in a run down condition as the best possible remedy." (Name furnished on request.)

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cods' livers aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and broncihtis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system. Vinol contains no oil and tastes good.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Farriss-Klutz Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

STUNNING FOULARD FROCK

Just What the Girls Will Consider a "Dear" Little Dress.

OF BLUE AND WHITE FOULARD

Custom cannot stale the infinite variety of the blue and white foulard frock which as regularly as the spring season comes around bobs up prettier and smarter than ever. Such a rejuvenation has taken place in the frock pictured. The design is neat and attractive, and the blue is the new "king's blue," which is bright and becoming in tone.

The skirt is very like the plaited jupes of several years ago, but the blouse waist is extremely up to date with its natty sailor collar and black satin tie.

The American Woman.

The most spoiled women in the world are the American women. No one disputes this, not even the American woman herself. She accepts it with complacency.

But are the grounds for her complacency justifiable? Is it to her credit that the man spends his last dollar that she may be indulged; that she occupies the position of a spoiled darling rather than as helpmeet and companion; that her days vacillate between rest cures and a mad search for excitement?

Are not the American men responsible for this helpless attitude of the American woman? Have they not in their desire to guard women from every pin prick really crippled them and spoiled their efficiency as assistant burden bearers?

The attitude of the American woman has become definitely frivolous. She wastes her abundant vitality on things not worth while; she bends her keen mentality upon the attainment of social prestige, with its endless and life destroying competition; she recklessly saps her strength in a hundred ineffectual ways.

But her ambition is frivolous, her energy spasmodic, and the expression of both is futile, because the objects upon which they are spent are not worth while. Why not give her insight and her vitality to the men of her family in their struggle for success? And let her make of society a relaxation, not an object; let her use it as a graceful ornamentation, but not as a foundation.

Who is to blame for so unjust a situation? Both. The American man because he foolishly shields the woman from every wind that blows, making of her a fragile orchid of hothouse beauty when she should be a hardy garden rose. And the woman is to blame for shutting her eyes to life's serious aspect, for chasing butterflies in the fair gardens of convention day in and day out, when she might be climbing, side by side, with the man to the high mountain tops in the land of fine achievement.

Good Things to Know.

In preparing grapefruit for the table if you will roll the fruit before cutting you will find that it is improved. It not only makes the fruit more juicy, but loosens the pulp and gives it a far better flavor.

A convenient broom holder is made in this way: Take a square of cloth a little larger than will cover the brush of the broom. Put a hem an inch wide in each end and run a tape or string in each hem, then all that is needed to have a broom cover is to lay cloth over the broom, draw the string at each end and tie.

If all the reserve corks are too large for the bottle try soaking one in hot water. It will go easily into the bottle and leave no space for air to get in.

Before hemming heavy table linen rub hem with dry white soap and needle will go through more readily.

Try putting lemon juice on rust spots and then applying a hot iron. If rust does not disappear try again.

Good to Live By.

CHILDREN TOLD HOW TO MAKE CITY BEAUTIFUL

brand new broom was carried around. The thought brought forth was to cause those present to take great pride in keeping their homes as clean as possible and teach the children to assist in the housework. Dr. McFarland before beginning his address paid a deserved compliment to the girls, and turning to the girls in front of him the speaker urged that each one work for cleanliness and beauty.

Mrs. Kimball announced the song "The Old North State," the audience standing during the singing. At the close of the song Dr. McFarland began his lecture, Mr. Hammel working the stereopticon.

Illustrated Lecture.

For nearly an hour the speaker held the undivided attention of his audience and his address was well worth listening to. Several hundred views were shown, sometimes two of the same locality one before and one after certain improvements had been made. In some cases the transformation of dirty, dingy, decrepit houses, bill boards, tin can heaps, etc., into the most beautiful homes, streets, and public parks seemed little short of marvelous.

Dr. McFarland first took up the point that usually when people enter a town or city they are given a back view of houses and manufactories. He pointed to a view showing a railroad track running alongside a large number of outhouses located in back yards. Then switching another view upon the canvas the speaker showed conclusively that by fronting houses and having nice lawns next the railroads the strangers who pass through the city are given a much better impression of the thrift and industry of the city. He showed numerous views of water fronts and said that the reason pointed out why American people spend so much money in European cities each year is that those cities are so much more beautiful than American cities; that vast sums of money are spent to improve the civic conditions. And it pays, said Mr. McFarland, for we could take the money we carry abroad to spend and make a large number of our cities beautiful.

Spare the Trees.

It was wrong for man to trim up trees with the idea that he knew more about how a tree ought to grow than God Almighty. He showed views of trees robbed of every limb by the saw and axe and of trees naturally. He urged the children to never allow a tree in Greensboro to be cut down or trimmed when they were big enough to have charge of the city's affairs.

Narrow Streets Better.

There is no earthly need for such wide streets, declared the speaker, for the wide streets cost more for repairs than do narrow ones. "Now here is a pretty street," he said pointing to a view. "Notice the narrow street and the narrow sidewalk with the line of trees between the curb and the sidewalk; also the wide strip of grass. This is plenty wide enough for ordinary use and the grass and trees on either side make the street more beautiful." The next view was of a wide street with a grass plat in the center, there being two driveways on either side for wagons. Another view showed a wide street with a grass plat down the center and a row of magnolia trees down the center of the grass plat. More than half of the street was devoted to grass, the paved portion on either side being about fifteen feet.

Poles Most Unsightly.

Dr. McFarland here turned his attention to the lamp poles and telephone and telegraph poles. He showed views of a number of lamp posts that were ideal, he said. He declared that Greensboro had more than her share of poles on the streets and he hoped the city authorities would see that some were cleared away. It makes the street look a third wider he said, showing views in big cities where the wires have been stowed away underground.

Bill Board Nuisance.

Many views of unsightly bill boards were shown and Dr. McFarland was not backward in saying that it was a mean thing for a firm to go in front of someones home or place of business and erect the hideous signs. He showed many prominent places with bill boards and signs in the most prominent place adjacent. He told the boys to tear every sign down whenever they saw one nailed to a tree; that no one had the right to abuse a tree in this manner. And the overhanging signs on the streets were a nuisance, declared Dr. McFarland, and should be removed.

The speaker spoke of the advantages of having beautiful grounds around factories, showing a number of views where employes could rest and roam around when not at work. The employes are enabled to do more work when they have pleasant surroundings, he declared.

Room For Play.

Playgrounds were strongly advocated by Mr. McFarland, who deprecated the fact that the new school building was going up at a place where there was no playgrounds. He said that the city should provide ample playgrounds for the children at each school; that it is of little benefit to develop the mind if the body is to be made a physical wreck meantime. He showed views of a number of public parks, playgrounds and swimming pools provided by cities for the use of the children. These were expensive he said, but experience had taught that this was not as expensive as it was to bury the children who died because of lack of exercise and physical development, much less take care of those who become unable to care for themselves on account of their physical development. It pays to purchase land before the price is increased, he declared, showing the cost of parks in New York many years ago and a few years ago. The last tract cost millions, despite the fact it contained only a few acres. Had it been purchased at the time of the first tract it would have cost less than half.

"Is your cemetery beautiful," asked the speaker. There came back a chorus of "yes." "Now tell me what you want your cemetery beautiful for, can the dead see whether it is pretty or not? Had you not better have beautiful spots for the living to gaze upon rather than have beautiful spots for the resting place of the dead," asked the speaker.

In concluding the speaker brought out the thought that each boy and girl has a duty to perform if Greensboro is to be made more cleanly and beautiful. He urged each one to do his and her part in making Greensboro a beautiful city.

The Parade.

The parade began at 2 o'clock, the participants forming on Church street at the Smith Memorial building. The line was nearly half a mile in length and the display was quite a creditable one. The Boy Scouts, about seventy-five strong, headed the procession and with flashing swords and beating drums they formed the vanguard for the Junior Civic League, which came second in the line of march. The girls were first and carried large Civic day banners, and wearing the civic colors. These were followed by a squad of girls in blue, wearing aprons and caps and carrying brooms. Then came the boy members of the civic league, these carrying small hoes, rakes and spades and wearing the league colors. They carried a large banner calling for a playground. Following came the bicycle contestants, horseback riders, the carriages and rigs. The parade came up Church to Elm and to the railroad and return.

The Prize Winners.

Three prizes had been offered to the contestants in the parade. The $2.50 prize offered by Wills Book Store for the most attractively rigged bicycle was awarded to little Lillian Brandt. The $5 offered by King & Kimball for the prettiest child's turnout was awarded to Corinne Justice, driven by Robert Brooks, and occupied by little Miss Justice, Brooks, June McAlister and Ruth Reitzel. The prize of $5 offered by Meyer's Department Store for the prettiest grownup turnout was awarded to Mrs. Brandt. The judges were W. C. A. Hammel, R. D. Douglas, F. P. Marshall and W. E. Brewer.

Reception to Speaker and Visitors.

Yesterday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock in the Elks' Club was held a re-

HER "NO."

I cannot tell you what she really meant,
Whether it was denial or consent,
But what she said was plain and simple "No."
To which she added, "and I wish you'd go."
It was an hour or more before I went,
Then—and it might have been by accident.

Then—and it might have been by accident—
She pursed her lips—I think, though, with intent,
I think she raised her chin an inch or so—
I cannot tell.

What happened then she could not well prevent,
Although I'm sure I was not violent,
I did not mention that the lights were low;
The one gas jet gave a feeble glow;
But if you ask me how the time was spent
I cannot tell.

An Appreciation of Debs.

As an orator, Eugene V. Debs has fewer equals than any one man in America. He is as fearless as Patrick Henry, while in eloquence, sublimity of thought and precision of expression, he stands alongside Wendel Phillips and Henry Ward Beecher.

His perfect love of liberty for crushed humanity is unmistakable. He wages constant warfare against the injustice practiced upon the defenseless of all the world, and more particularly in our own home land. The message of the toilers bounds forth from Debs' heart, in noble words, perfumed with liberty as clear and sweet as ever escaped the lips of our immortal Lincoln.

A man in Texas, during Debs' present southern tour, traveled in a wagon a distance of nearly 200 miles to hear the famous lecturer.

He is now in Alabama filling dates and will be in Greensboro at the Grand on March 25 at 8 o'clock p. m.

CURES PIMPLES QUICKLY

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past Howard Gardner has done the biggest business he ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Greensboro.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic ezcema and salt rheum.

In spite of its unusual curative power, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, Howard Gardner will sell a liberal sized jar for 25c.; larger sized 50c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

TESTIMONIAL.

I wish to state for the benefit of anyone suffering from eczema, that I had eczema on my hand for some time and could find nothing that would cure it until I used Hokara. One 25c jar entirely cured me. Wm. Nichols, 621 1-2 Central Ave., Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

MAJ. GEN. CARTER EXPECTED TO ARRIVE IN SAN ANTONIO TODAY.

Washington, March 10.—With all the details of the great Southward movement of troops completed and the scene of activity shifted from Washington to the field, the headquarters of the army today is awaiting complacently the arrival of the units of the moving commands at their objective points.

Major General William H. Carter, commander of the division concentrating in Texas, is expected to arrive at San Antonio tomorrow. Reports to the War Department indicate that by that time nearly all of the troops which will form from the division will have reported.

Major General Leonard Wood, it was announced at the War Department today, probably will go to the border in April. The purpose of his trip will be to inspect the camp and commands thrown along the frontier.

The navy is carrying out its part of the operations just as though the sudden and extensive preparations of war vessels for active duty was a part of the humdrum of every day life. Three ships o fthe fifth division of the Atlantic fleet are now en route to Guantanamo, Cuba. The armored cruiser Washington, the remaining unit of the division, which is undergoing repairs at the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard, will be ready for duty on March 15, when she will be sent to join her division.

The admissions in administration circles that the military activity is inspired by conditions in Mexico were read with deep interest today by officers of the army and navy, a majority of whom had accepted the earlier explanation that the operations were merely technical exercises and drills in the art of warfare.

$20,000 Fire in High Point Yesterday

In High Point yesterday morning fire destroyed the plant of the Shipman Organ Company, entailing a loss of about $20,000. The plants of the Southern Chair Company and the Giant Furniture Company caught on fire, but the firemen by heroic work prevented the flames from spreading.

The fire originated in the sanding department and the blaze rapidly gained headway. A young woman on the second floor was cut off and jumped from a window. She escaped unhurt.

The loss is fully covered by insurance.

SHOES AND HAIR-CUTS

"The shoe business is just like a barber shop. Give a man a poor hair cut and he may not find it out till he gets home and his wife makes him turn 'round seven times for inspection. But you can bet tht next hair-cut will be in another shop. Sell a man a pair of "good-lookers" which will not stand up under wear, and he may not know it for a few days, but you might as well put a smallpox sign on your store and expect him to visit it as to hope for him to come back for another pair."

We sell the famous Bostonian shoes at this store, the kind that make a man come back for another pair and keep on coming back again and again. Hundreds of the best people in this city long ago acquired the Bostonian habit and wear these excellent shoes season after season, summer and winter.

The new styles for spring are here ready for your inspection. Oxfords and high cuts, in Gun Metal, Vici, Patent Colt and Tan, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00.

Queen Elizabeth and Her Portraits.

The modern grievance of the illustrious against the photographer of the halfpenny paper has a parallel as far back as the early part of Queen Elizabeth's reign, when her minister, Cecil, issued a proclamation against the circulation of ill favored likenesses of her majesty. It stated that, as her majesty had perceived "a great number of her loving subjects to be much grieved with the errors and deformities" displayed in many popular portraits of herself, she had been pleased, "being herein, as it were, overcome with the continual requests of so many of her nobility and lords, to command that some cunning person should shortly make a portrait of her person or visage to be participated to others for the comfort of her loving subjects."

It isn't difficult for a man to get a woman to agree with him if she isn't his wife.

Many a man who is willing to be a scoundrel would object to being called one.

PROPOSAL TO BORE FOR OIL AND GAS IN EASTERN CAROLINA

Southern Pines, March 10.—W. H. Frost of Fredonia, N. Y., a successful producer of oil and gas in New York and Pennsylvania, where he is operating fifty wells at the present time, is in Fayetteville this week, concluding an exploring tour through Moore, Lee, Hoke and Cumberland counties. He was at Southern Pines two weeks. From here he went to Sanford, where he was able to study the geology of that region at the brown stone quarries at Sanford.

Mr. Frost is making a thorough examination of the Sand-hill country, and has left instructions at Southern Pines to a representative to learn how much land could be leased to him for the purpose of drilling wells two or three thousand feet deep in search of oil or natural gas.

The men who have been approached here and at Fayetteville assert that they can secure leases on fifty thousand acres of land covering the country from one town to the other, and at Fayetteville there is assurance that local capital will aid the prospecting venture, if Mr. Frost undertakes it.

The terms of leasing are to give to the farmer a certain proportion of all the oil found if any is discovered, the landowner to be at no expense right to operate on the land for oil or gas. In the event of finding gas, a specified sum of money is paid the farmer for every well that supplies gas.

The people seem to think this an exceptionally good chance to have the secrets of the deep portions of the earth explored, and as it costs about $5,000 to drill a well, and Mr. Frost proposes to put down three or four to make a test, and a great many if he finds either oil or gas, he seems to be taking about all the chances.

In talking with him as he left for Fayetteville, he said that the geology of this section is wholly different from that of the oil country where he operates, but that it resembles to some extent the Texas and Louisiana fields, where both oil and gas are found in enormous quantities. He says it is not a particularly favorable chance here, but that there is a possibility, and that he believes the possibilities would justify the risk, provided he can lease enough land to make the reward big enough in case the venture discovers anything.

Interviewing the landowners will begin at once, both here and at Fayetteville, and as nothing is asked of them except the right to drill on their land, without expense to them, it would seem that Mr. Frost will get all the encouragement he needs.

THIS CASE WAS DISPOSED OF AFTER 75 YEARS

Washington, March 10.—The famous "Double Concession" case, involving about 4,000 acres of land in Rapides Parish, La., valued at approximately $300,000, which has been pending before the Interior Department for more than 75 years, has been disposed of, subject to appeal, in a decision made public at the Interior Department.

Prior to 1836 various claimants paid for about 6,000 acres, while there were only 4,000 acres available for the satisfaction of such purchases. Prior to 1840 the Land Department surveyed the 4,000 acres in one tract and left to the parties themselves the task of subdividing the tract.

The question before the Land Office was whether the awards under this survey were authorized by law. The decision just rendered directs material modification of the survey under consideration, honors in part each of the several purchases, awards all the land to the claimants and sustains, under the authority of an early decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, the ancient boundaries of the several claims established by the parties themselves. The effect of the ruling is to leave undisturbed possessions that have been maintained for almost a century.

All the original parties to the controversy are dead, but the question has been fought stubbornly by their descendants.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Had Wheels, But Not in His Head

Wilmington, March 10.—Eighteen bicycles, believed to represent a portion of the machines which have been stolen here during the past three or four months, were found today by Constable W. B. Savage at the home of James Sellers, a young white man, at No. 1116 North Fourth street. Sellers made his escape while Constable Savage was searching the house and has not yet been captured. The bicycles are valued at from five to seven hundred dollars. The machines were brought down town on a large furniture van. The vehicle was stopped in front of Magistrate George Harriss' office on Princess street. A large crowd of curious spectators viewed the machines as they rested on the wagon. Many persons were on hand within a few moments to identify the machines which had been stolen from them recently.

Chinese Famine Grows Worse

Washington, March 10.—More gruesome stories of the horrors of the Chinese famine reached the state department today from the consul general at Shanghai, who describes conditions at the beginning of February. One traveler reported passing 13 dead bodies in 13 minutes. Others tell of the natives eating cakes made of leaves and stems mixed with millet chaff, which they buy with the allowance from the government of three cents apiece. Trees have been stripped of the bark and eaten. An American Presbyterian missionary declared that in the whole afflicted region there were 2,000,000 starving people. In one village of 100 families one-third were dead of hunger and pestilence. Snow was falling and many were without proper shelter or clothing.

The missionaries have attacked the work of relief with the greatest system and directness. The families in the province of Puchow, for instance, were divided into four classes and enumerated with this result :: Those who had plenty numbered 18,995; those who could exist till harvest on wheat grain they had, 209,937; those who had a little grain, but would be in need before the end of February, 153,301, and those really destitute and in need of immediate relief, 195,651.

One thousand dollars raised by the Chinese relief committee of the chamber of commerce of Cincinnati was cabled to Shanghai today by the American National Red Cross.

"Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough remedy I ever used as it quickly stopped a severe cough that had long troubled me," says J. W. Kuhn, Princeton, Nebr. Just so quickly and surely it acts in all cases of coughs, colds, lagrippe and lung trouble. Refuse substitutes. Howard Gardner.

Penny Stole Many Dollars' Worth of Hams.

New Orleans, March 9.—Allanais Penny, a negro, is under arrest here charged with stealing $600 worth of hams from a packing concern. It is said that Penny has been operating a "ham circuit" for a month peddling his wares at reduced prices. Clerks checked up the stock this week and found the shortage. Penny declares he is sure he did not get $600 worth as he only took about eight hams a week.

DISPUTE ABOUT NEGRO FIREMEN RESULTS IN STRIKE

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 10.—While firemen of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas railroad struck at 7 o'clock tonight because of a controversy over negro firemen. The strike was in response to order from a committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. The action was taken by the union after a long conference with T. C. Powell, vice president of the road, had failed to result in an agreement.

While the union officials were busy sending out the strike orders Mr. Powell dictated a telegram to Washington, asking mediation under the Erdman act. The union officers refused to join in a request for mediation, asserting that their experience had led them to believe that the men would lose rather than gain by such a course.

The strike is due to a dispute as to the status of negro firemen. The union asserts that the working agreement with the road provides that negroes are ineligible to any work except on local and slow freight trains and on yard engines. The railroad disputes this and asserts that their negro employes are entitled to promotion on the same terms as the white men. About 220 firemen are on the roster of the road.

SUFFRAGETTE GIVEN CHANCE TO PRACTICE WHAT SHE PREACHED

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 10.—William De Long, of Luzerne borough, who stopped supporting his wife, as he explained, because she was an ardent woman suffragist, discovered when he was arrested that his action was a mistake.

His wife had him arrested on the charge of non-support and he was taken before Alderman Barry, of Luzerne, for a hearing. De Long explained that he was tired of hearing his wife talk about the rights of women and the need of woman suffrage, and said that he gradually reached the point where he believed that if she was so certain of the ability of woman to look after themselves she did not need his support.

Justice Barry managed to effect a reconciliation, Mrs. De Long modifying her views and her husband agreeing to support her. He was discharged after paying the costs.

Eagle Trapped Near Asheville

Asheville, March 10.—Luther Buckner of Madison county brought to the city a large Black Mountain eagle, which was caught in a steel trap on the head of Cane river near the Ivy gap. It is a fierce looking bird and its present captivity is due to the fact that it had been killing lambs.

Several years ago it was not uncommon to see eagles in the Black Mountains but recently they have almost dissapeared, and of late years it has been very rare for them to prey on anything as large as a lamb.

DANVILLE CASE DUPLICATED IN KENTUCKY

Lexington, Ky., March 10.—After being at liberty for 16 years, T. B. Whitson, who, on February 27, 1895, escaped from the State prison at Raleigh, N. C., where he was serving a sentence of 30 years for murder, was arrested today and will be taken back to North Carolina to serve out his term.

Residing in Letcher county, Ky., as "Samuel Jones," he has amassed a comfortable fortune. He was sentenced to death March 19, 1893, for the murder of C. C. Byrd at Bakersville, N. C., but on a second trial he was given 30 years' imprisonment.

Some Grain Statistics

Washington, March 10.—The quantity of wheat on farms March 1, according to the crap report of the Department of Agriculture issued this afternoon, was about 179,690,000 bushels, or 25.8 per cent. of the 1910 crop, compared with 173,344,000 bushels, or 25.5 per cent. of the 1909 crop on farms March1, 1910, and 154,031,000 bushels, or 23.3 per cent., the average for the past 10 years.

About 54.5 per cent. of the crap will be shipped out of the counties where grown, against 59.3 per cent. of the 1909 crop, and 57 per cent., the average for the past 10 years so shipped.

Warning to Railroad Men

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroading. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroading left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Howard Gardner.

""Gustave's letters to me are exceedingly dull and commonplace," said one fair girl.

"Don't you know why?" responded the other."

"No."

"Gustave once served on the jury in a breach of promise case."—Washington Star.

Nothing ventured nothing gained—but you may be able to keep what you have.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

Neutralize and remove the poisons that cause backache, rheumatism, nervousness and all kidney and bladder irregularities. They build up and restore the natural action of these vital organs. Howard Gardner.

WAY WANTED IN COLUMBIA

Columbia, S. C., March 10.—Circulars offering a reward of $100 for the arrest of Dr. S. R. Way have been sent to the sheriffs and chiefs of police of South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia by Sheriff Coleman of Richland county.

Dr. Way was tried at the term of the Richland county court several months ago on the charge of obtaining a signature under false pretenses, whereby it was charged he secured money belonging to his wife to the extent of several thousand dollars. The proceedings were instituted by Mrs. Way, his wife.

A sealed verdict was returned. Dr. Way was under a bond of $2,000. His bondsmen were J. C. Gaines and R. L. Shull of Columbia.

Yesterday Mrs. Way called at the office of Governor Blease who is in Atlanta. She asked that a reward be offered. The question of offering a reward by Governor Blease will be taken up on his return.

Soon after Dr. Way was convicted it is claimed that he left the State. Dr. Way formerly lived in Greenville. He conducted a drug store here at the corner of Main and Washington streets for several months.

The following circular has been sent out from the sheriff's office:

"A reward of $100 will be paid for arrest and delivery to the sheriff of Richland county of Dr. S. R. Way, who skipped his bond of $2,000 on January 13, 1911. When last heard from Dr. Way was leaving Clinton on the Atlanta train January 13, 1911.

Description.

"Dr. S. R. Way is a man about 60 years old and weighs about 150 or 160 pounds. When last seen he was wearing a short black mustache, slightly gray; is baldheaded; has a large Roman nose, and has a Jewish appearance; dark brown eyes, and is most likely to be found keeping books for some Jew concern."

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O., (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, LaGrippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

GROWERS AGREE TO REDUCE SEA ISLAND COTTON ACREAGE

Waycross, Ga., March 10.—An agreement to reduce the sea island cotton acreage 50 per cent. and to hold all unsold cotton for more satisfactory prices was the result of a convention attended by 300 cotton-growers of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama in Waycross today. Charles S. Barrett, president of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union, presided.

The principal addresses, urging co-operation for better results, were made by C. S. Barrett, R. A. N. Wilson of Mississippi, T. J. Booker of Tennessee and E. Cabiness of Georgia.

Another meeting will be held soon to consider further plans along the lines of those formulated today.

This is what Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ledbetter said on January 22:

"Gentlemen: Last night our daughter, age five years, was taken suddenly with pneumonia. We used 1-2 box of Mother's Joy as directed, and today she is almost well, thanks to the good remedy so near at hand and so cheap. This was a violent case, and hope you success. 520 Laura avenue."

Destructive Fire at Rutherfordton

Rutherfordton, March 10.—Fire of unknown origin, which started at 10 c'clock last night in the Carpenter block, in the heart of the business district, destroyed a dozen merchantile establishments, the Central hotel, the Baptist and Methodist churches, the Carpenter residence and a livery stable.

The Waiting Championship.

An Atchison woman who looks for good in everything is glad she married. "It has taught me patience," she said. When a girl she flew into a temper if she had to wait five minutes for something she wanted, but now she waits and waits and waits and says nothing. She waited nine years for her new front porch, six years for her husband to take her to the theater and eleven years for him voluntarily, when there was no company around, to offer her a rocking chair. "This," she said recently to a friend who heard she was sitting up half the night waiting for her husband to come home, "is nothing. I can wait longer and say less about it than any woman who ever lived. I am glad I married; otherwise I could never claim the waiting championship belt."—Atchison Globe.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.
